

Marquette University Undergraduate Student Linda Hucko Receives NAIOP Diversity CRE Scholarship

HERNDON, VA (May 17, 2017) – NAIOP, the Commercial Real Estate Development Association, has selected Linda Hucko, an undergraduate student majoring in commercial real estate and accounting at Marquette University and a member of NAIOP Wisconsin, as a recipient of the 2017 Diversity Commercial Real Estate (CRE) Scholarship.

“NAIOP recognizes the value of supporting the next generation of leadership in commercial real estate and increasing the diversity of backgrounds and viewpoints in our industry,” said Thomas J. Bisacquino, NAIOP president and CEO. “We commend this high-achieving undergraduate student for her enthusiasm and commitment to improving the built environment and enhancing the communities in which we live, work and play.”

Hucko is expected to receive her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Marquette University in spring 2018. She is a recipient of the Marquette Service and Leadership in Real Estate Award. Hucko was also accepted into Alpha Sigma Nu, a Jesuit Honor Society whose membership is limited to the top 4% of each class. She plans to work as a real estate intern for Ansay Development Corporation in summer 2017.

The NAIOP Diversity CRE Scholarship benefits graduate and undergraduate students pursuing careers in commercial real estate. NAIOP has awarded four $5,000 graduate student scholarships as well as two $2,500 undergraduate student scholarships to individuals from demographics that are traditionally under-represented in commercial real estate and whose universities are part of the NAIOP University Membership program. In addition to the scholarship, each award recipient will have the opportunity to make new professional connections and sharpen his or her commercial real estate acumen with complimentary registration for NAIOP’s CRE.Converge 2017, October 10-12, in Chicago.
