Time Limitations
Time Limitations

• Students must complete all requirements for their degrees within six years of their first course. Students unable to complete their program and graduate within six years may petition the Graduate School of Management for an extension of time. The petition must be in writing and include an explanation of why the program has not been completed and a time and task chart of how and when the program will be completed.

• Submit the written request to your advisor via the Graduate School of Management. The GSM limits the total number of credits transferred into the graduate programs as follows:
