ALPHA SIGMA NU

Alpha Sigma Nu is the national honor society of the Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. The society was founded in 1915 at Marquette University to honor a select number of students on the basis of scholarship, loyalty, and service. Alpha Sigma Nu is unique among honor societies in that it seeks to identify the most promising students of the Jesuit schools, students who demonstrate an intellectual appreciation of and commitment to the ideals of Jesuit education – intellectual, social, moral and religious. Selection to Alpha Sigma Nu is one of the highest honors that can be given on a Jesuit campus.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

Beta Gamma Sigma is an international honor society recognizing the outstanding academic achievements of students enrolled in collegiate business and management programs accredited by AACSB – International, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. This is a select group: of over 1,600 educational institutions offering business and management degrees, only 493 are eligible to have Beta Gamma Sigma Chapters.

Eligibility for Beta Gamma Sigma reflects the society's high standards for academic excellence. Only those in the top 7% of the junior class, the top 10% of the senior class or the top 20% of the master's programs are honored by an invitation to Beta Gamma Sigma membership.

These students are selected by the faculty of their schools. Their selection not only recognizes academic achievement, but also expresses confidence in the students' abilities and promise to become outstanding business leaders in the future.

Greetings!

Tonight we honor publicly the most exceptional students in the College of Business Administration and Graduate School of Management, but I want to take this opportunity to personally congratulate them all: What you've achieved is remarkable and indicative of your talents, hard work and character. You should be very proud.

To the guests in attendance, we know how excited you are to celebrate the achievements of your sons and daughters, siblings, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, spouses, and friends. Your support and encouragement has motivated these students to achieve at the highest levels and inspire those around them, and for that we thank each and every one of you.

We in the college look forward to celebrating our student honorees' continued successes as Marquette alumni. It has been a privilege to educate these students and challenge them to be the difference in the world.

Kind regards,
